A GAY WEEK AT SARATOGA.

THE SEASON REACHING ITS HEIGHT.

"PRESBYTERIAN BILLIARDS" - PERSONAL

NOTES-LISTS OF NEW-YORK GUESTS. Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 10 (Special).-The superb weather which has favored this summer resort during the week, and the great rush of visitors here. especially during the last three days, have brought the son up to its height. The arrivals are heavier than during any corresponding week for years. A. W. Dieter, of Brooklyn, who owns the Victoria Hotel here, has purchased the Eureka White Sulphur spring property. It is immediately north of the viland contains fifty-eight acres. The purchaser contemplates making extensive improvements. bought the property of A. R. Dyett, of New-York, who owned the place for many years.

Between 8,000 and 10,000 excursionists have visited ratoga during the week. With scarcely an exception every pulpit here will be occupied to morrow by distinguished divines from different sections of the land. An unusually large number of clergymen are enjoying their midsummer vacations here. The majority of them appear to have a weakness for indulging in "Presbyterian billiards," the Saratoga term for croquet. Every fair day in the Circular Street Indian Encampment and elsewhere about town clergymen of National reputation may be observed toying with the mallet and ball. They are skilful players. The Rev. Dr. Herrick Johnson, of Chicago, plays a strong game, but he has a number of formidable rivals who are laboring hard to defeat him. The Presbyterian entertainment at the Patrick cottage netted about $500. Fully a dozen hops and entertainments were in progress at different hotels and boarding-houses this evening, and all were well patronized. Professional and amateur vocalists and elocutionists abound here in large numbers this season, and they contribute greatly to the general variety of the entertainments. Among the latest arrivals from New-York and its immediate vicinity are J. Davis, Dr. A. G. Terry, J. M. Lyddy, W. M. Lyddy, W. Barre, Mrs. W. Murray, M. FINE WEATHER AND MANY GAYETIES.

THE CASINO BALLS-ARRIVALS AT THE LEAD-ING HOTELS.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Aug. 10 (Special).-The season is now at its height. The arrivals at the hotels this week have been the most numerous of any week this season, and all of the hotels are full. The bathing has been excellent this week, and great crowds of people have enjoyed that sport. The social side of Pier life has also been at its bost.

On Monday night the first of the hotel hops was given The large attendance and the evi pleasure of the participants proved that the hotels can when they please successfully compete with the Casino.

Tuesday afternoon the ladies at the Revere House held a garden party and fair for the benefit of St. Peter's-bythe-Sea. The place were a holiday appearance, and the grounds were throughd with patterns. The sales were large and the profit of rge and the profits considerable.

Wednesday night there was another of the long series the at-

of successful Casino hops. The music was fine, the at-tendance almost a crush and the dancing spirited. Tonight the Casino is again a scene of great gayety, the ccasion being the regular Saturday night hop-Recent arrivals at the several hotels include these

Among the slarters in the first race yesterday was the Rock City Stable's bay colt Kayaderrosseras, by Bulwark, out of Miss Primose. When the rider mounted the scale for the purpose of being weighed out Secretary Wheatley inquired:

"What horse do you ride?"
Joeley Redfield, who is a colored lad, gasped for breath, and maintained a painful silence.

"Th give you a $5 note if you can pronounce it correctly," said the secretary, deviling down into his poelests and bringing forth a crisp bill. Redfield made a herole but unsuccessful attempt, and, stammering, said:

SUMMER NOTES FROM NEW-HAVEN.

"Poetical," and "Prophetical," thus enabling the student at a moment's notice to turn to any part of the Scripture for reference, without the delay of "hunting up" the place. The lessons in Rible geography are divided in two pairs, the Old Testament world, and the New Testament world. They are laught from the blackboard, the instructor drawing the map in outline before the class and requiring the student to designate the location of mountains, rivers, seas, and important places as he puts them in.
